

Public Sector Leadership Bio

Tom Sewolt

Senior Director of Base and Program Management

Tom Sewolt serves as Lumen Technologies' Senior Director of Base and Program Manager for the Public Sector. He is an innovative and results-oriented business leader with over 30 years of experience in the Public Sector.

Tom has a proven track record of developing and executing strategies that deliver significant results, particularly in Cost Accounting Standards (CAS) compliance, program control, customer success, and business operations. Tom has demonstrated exceptional business acumen and strategic leadership, driving the overall success of organizations and growing revenue from a $200 million federal business segment to a close to $2 billion Public Sector line of business. His leadership and expertise have been crucial in supporting the government's mission through seamless and secure solutions.

Throughout his career, Tom has been a trusted advisor and key contributor to organizational vision, mission, and values. He has led strategic initiatives to align with ecosystem functions and stakeholders, resulting in sales and revenue growth while reducing expenses and expanding margins. Tom is also a liaison to organizational leaders, coaching, mentoring, and optimizing organizational strategy and alignment.

Tom is passionate about diversity, equity and inclusion, believing that belonging is the ultimate driver of success. He encourages others to collaborate within and beyond their teams to build compelling relationships. Tom is skilled at challenging the status quo to drive initiatives and develop others, ensuring accountability with a clear sense of ownership, while designing 360 feedback.

Tom graduated summa cum laude from Regis University and holds a bachelor's degree in business administration. He is a member of the National Property Management Association and the National Contract Management Association.