Command your Meeting with CenturyLink Web

- Connect Me—CenturyLink Web allows you to connect to meetings with one click. No software downloads are required. No need to remember dial-in numbers or passcodes. And with the CenturyLink Web “Connect” feature, the meeting calls you wherever you are around the world.
- Break down barriers—Customers meeting needs vary from web to audio to a combination of both. CenturyLink Web offers standalone audio controls tools, the ability to escalate to a web meeting and the web meeting itself.
- Unified Meeting Experience—CenturyLink Web goes far beyond the integration of audio and web conferencing, providing webcam video with an “active talker” feature that switches between speakers’ webcams so you can easily follow the action.
- Scheduling—The Conferencing Toolbar for Outlook allows you to easily start, schedule, record and manage meetings right from your desktop.
- Content Library—Store all of your presentations, reports and content in one place and access them from the meeting rather than a separate portal, allowing quick retrieval for sharing frequently viewed files.
- Custom Meeting Tracking—CenturyLink Web supports customized tracking of your meeting. You can set up custom fields to allow the host to specify tracking information for each meeting.
- Audio Controls—CenturyLink’s online audio controls let you invite guests via email or dial out to your guests. Lock, mute or record your call with a single click. Adjust participant volumes and mute noisy lines. Get one click access to participant profile and contact information.
- *Support—Connect globally with international, best-in-class support, at any time, 24/7. CenturyLink Web provides a live attendant via *0. Additionally, live online chat can help you or your attendees with any question they have during a live meeting.
